10. Final Statement.

1. Information Collected by the Trust:

We will not knowingly use information collected on this website to others in ways different from what is disclosed in this statement. The Trust collects information from our users at several different points on our website. For purposes of this Privacy Statement, "Personally Identifiable Information" refers to information that can directly identify an individual; for example, such information may include a first, last or business name; office, billing or other physical address; an e-mail address; phone number or other contact information; When submitting personally identifiable information to us, you represent to us that the information is true, accurate and current in all respects, and you are automatically giving us your unconditional consent to the collection, storage, use and disclosure of your personal information as set forth in this Privacy Policy. At various locations on the Site, such as when you contact us, register to use the Site, log-in to a password protected area, or otherwise we may request or provide you with the option to supply us with certain personally identifiable information. As part of creating an account on the Site, you may also be requested to provide questions and secret answers, which we use to help verify your identity and assist in resetting your password. If you do not want your personally identifiable information collected, please do not submit it to us. Please keep in mind that if you do not submit personally identifiable information that is requested of you, you may be unable to access certain locations and features on the Site. We may also use that information to contact you, for example, to answer a question or respond to a comment you have submitted.

In some cases, when you visit the Site, we may also collect information that is non-personally identifiable information or technical information that, by itself, cannot be used to identify or contact you. Examples of this type of information include the type of Internet browser or computer operating system you use, demographic information (e.g., your age, gender or zip code), the date and time you visited the Site, the pages you accessed, the name of the web site from which you linked to the Site, country or residence and other anonymous data. We also may ask for additional information which you have the option not to provide. We may use non-personally identifiable information through cookies, web logs, web beacons (also known as action tags) and other monitoring tools to analyze trends, to gather broad demographic information for aggregate use and for marketing and promotional purposes. Non-personally identifiable information is not linked to any personally identifiable information. In order to improve the Site, we reserve the right to use or disclose non-personal information in any way we see fit.

In addition to the information specified above, we may automatically receive personal information from you as part of the communication connection itself, which often consists of network routing information (where you came from), equipment information (Internet browser type) and date and time. KPS may also use cookies, embedded URLs and embedded pixels to capture additional information. We collect and you consent to the collection of your IP address whenever you visit the Web Site, to help diagnose performance of its servers, administer and tune the operation of the Web Site, gather demographic information for aggregate use, and track the date, duration of each session within the Web Site, analyze trends, and track traffic patterns. Your IP address may also be used in combination with your personally identifiable information for credit card fraud protection and risk reduction.

1.1 Information that is automatically collected:

We use IP addresses, with the help of a business partner, to analyze trends, administer the website, track users' movements, and gather broad demographic information for aggregate use. IP addresses are not linked to Personally Identifiable Information.

1.2 Information that is collected by Cookies:

A cookie is a piece of data stored on a user's hard drive containing information about that user. By setting a cookie on our website, the user would not have to log in with a password more than once, thereby saving time while on our website. If a user rejects the cookie, they may still use our website. The only drawback to this is that the user will be limited in some areas of our website. Cookies can also enable us to track and target the interests of our users to enhance the experience on our website.

1.3 Information that is actively submitted to the Trust:

Registrations and Orders: In order to donate online or order services from this website, a user must create an account and complete a registration process. During the account creation process, a user must provide contact information (such as name and email address) so that we can stay in touch with our users. This information is also used to fulfill order and registration requests. To donate online or for other service ordered, a user must provide contact information (such as name and shipping address) and financial information (such as a credit card number and its expiration date). This information is used for billing purposes, with the help of our service provider (the bank which is providing us the payment gateway facilities), and to fill users' orders. If we have trouble processing an order, this contact information is used to get in touch with the user.

1.4 Third Party Advertisers on the Trust's Website:

Presently, we do not provide any third party advertisement on our website. No third party interference is yet allowed and hence there is no question of collecting any information from third party from our website. In future, if we allow advertisement on this website with authorized permission, we will decide on the collection of private information by third party or use of cookies by third party. The necessary information will be mentioned in this place.

1.5 Information the Trust Obtains from Third Parties:

Presently website is not collecting user information from third party. Only in case of Payment Gateway, the bank (whosoever provides the payment gateway services for online transaction) collects very critical information like Credit card or debit card number, Expiry date of credit card or debit card, Credit card or debit card holders name, amount deducted from their credit or debit account and any other relevant information which is must for online transaction. These information are collected by payment gateway service provider and these information along with your contact information may be stored with payment gateway service provider. The Trust stores your name, contact information, telephone numbers, e-mail address, Tax Registration Number or Permanent Account Number i.e. PAN and amount you donate. The payment gateway service provider sends the transaction number to the Trust website on completion of payment procedure along with status of transaction (like success, cancel or error).

A. on Successful transaction of payment:

In case of successful transaction of payment for donation the user will inform accordingly. The details can also be informed via email (if proper email address provided at the time of payment). The amount will be deducted from user's respective bank and credited in the account of the Trust account. While the payment is for donation to KP Sanghvi Charitable Trust, user will not get any income tax benefit under section 80G of the Income Tax Act, 1961 and accordingly exemption certificate will not be provided. The receipt will be provided in the form of donation slip (online) and user has to get it printed. If user wants a physical receipt then it will be delivered to his contact address. The donation is not refundable on any condition.

B. on Cancel of transaction of payment:

If user cancels the transaction in middle of the process, the details are stored in the database and transaction of record generated mentioning that user has interfered in middle of transaction and cancels the transaction. In case of cancellation of transaction, it is possible that server might have already completed transaction and user may get the report of transaction late.

In that case:

Cancellation is not possible.

2. Communications from the Trust:

Welcome Emails and General Correspondence. We send a welcoming email to the email address associated with the account a user has created to verify the users password and username. This process is designed to prevent e-mail addresses from being used without permission in the creation of a Trust account. Established users will occasionally receive information on products, services, special deals, and a newsletter. Out of respect for the privacy of our users we present the option to not receive some of these types of communications. Please see our opt-out options below.

Site and Service Updates - We send the user website and service announcement updates. Users are not permitted to unsubscribe from service announcements, which contain important information about the website and/or service. We may communicate with users to provide services that users request or to discuss issues relating to their account.

Surveys & Contests - From time-to-time our website requests information from users via surveys or contests. Participation in these surveys or contests is completely voluntary and, as such, the user has a choice whether or not to disclose this information. Information requested may include contact information (such as name and shipping address), and demographic information (such as zip code, age level).

3. How Information Collected by the Trust is used:

Demographic Information - We will share aggregated demographic information with our partners. The aggregated demographic information is not linked to any Personally Identifiable Information that can identify any individual person.

Communicating with Our Users - We use Personally Identifiable Information (such as your name, telephone number or email address) to communicate with our users when they have questions, concerns or comments about their accounts or the services that we provide. If you contact us, we may or may not delete your emails or voicemails to us.

Information Shared With Third Parties - We do not share your information with third party except you provide while payment transaction to payment gateway service providers. We use a credit card processing company to bill users for goods and services. These companies do not use Personally Identifiable Information for any use other than credit card processing; however, we will not be responsible or liable for use of the information required by credit card companies in contravention of their policies, contractual obligations or general good business procedures.

Partner with third parties who provide services to our users - When the user signs up for or agrees to receive a specific service provided by the third party (i.e. Postmaster Direct advertisements), we share the information that is needed for the third party to provide the services. Share your Personally Identifiable Information with other entities that are owned by the Trust, that own the Trust or have some sort of corporate ownership relationship with the Trust.

Addressing Legal Issues - Further, we provide Personally Identifiable Information to respond to subpoenas, court orders, or legal process, or to establish or exercise our legal rights or defend against legal claims. Further, we believe it is necessary to share Personally Identifiable Information in order to investigate, prevent, or take action regarding illegal activities, suspected fraud, situations involving potential threats to the physical safety of any person, violations of Shree Pavapuri Tirth Trust's terms of use, or as otherwise required by law.

4. Correction/Updating Personal Information:

Users must provide accurate and correct contact information (name, postal address, e-mail address, phone number) etc. On providing wrong information if we are unable to process your request, then we are not at all responsible for the act. We provide services only if you provide the correct information. In that case, the Trust is not responsible and has no legal rights to provide required services or refund your amount whatsoever.

5. Opting Out:

Users are provided an opportunity to "opt-out" of having their information used for purposes not directly related to the services they request. Users who no longer wish to receive our newsletter or promotional materials from us may opt-out of receiving these communications by replying and typing "unsubscribe" in the subject line in the email or email your request to pavapuri-rj@nic.in

6. Use of the Trust Website by Persons Under Age 18 years:

This website is collecting payment for donation. It is not intended for use by anyone under the age of eighteen (18), and any individual under such age should not provide us with Personally Identifiable Information. We do not knowingly contact, market to, solicit, collect or use Personally Identifiable Information from or about any individual under the age of 18. It is possible that by fraud or deception we may receive information pertaining to children under 18. If we are notified of that we have personal information regarding a person under the age of 18, as soon as we reasonably verify the information, we will either obtain parental consent or otherwise delete the information from the account and/or service. However, the information may remain on a log in our servers. If you want to notify us of our receipt of information by children under 18, please do so by emailing us at: pavapuri-rj@nic.in

7. Linking to Third Party Websites:

This website contains links to other websites. Please be aware that we are not responsible for the privacy practices of such other websites. We encourage our users to be aware when they leave our website and to read the Privacy Statements of each and every website that collects Personally Identifiable Information. This Privacy Statement applies solely to information collected by this website.

8. Users Must Keep Their Passwords Private:

Users are required to keep their account passwords confidential and do not share this information with others. If you choose to reveal or share your password and your account name or user name, we are unable to guarantee the security of your account.

9. Changes to Our Privacy Statement:

This Privacy Statement may change, and use of information that we gather now is subject to the Privacy Statement that is in effect as of the time of use. You are responsible for periodically checking our Privacy Statement. You may opt-out of any posted change to our collection, use or disclosure of your personal information by sending an e-mail to pavapuri-rj@nic.in. If we make minor changes to this Privacy Statement, the changes will be immediately effective upon posting the revised Privacy Statement to the website. If we make material changes to this Privacy Statement or in how we will use or collect your Personally Identifiable Information, we will prominently post a notification on our website of the changed Privacy Statement ten (10) days prior to implementing the change. The date at the bottom of this Privacy Statement is the date that the Privacy Statement is effective.

10. Final Statement:

K P Sanghvi Religious Trust and its facility known as Shree Pavapuri Tirth, Sirohi, Rajasthan will use your information in accordance with the Privacy Statement that is currently in effect. If you have any questions about the security at our website, you can send an email to pavapuri-rj@nic.in
